

DAVID BOHNETT FELLOWSHIPS IN PUBLIC SERVICE

NYU's Robert F. Wagner Graduate School of Public Service is honored to house the David Bohnett Public Service Fellowships which will provide full tuition support and summer stipends for three (3) Bohnett Fellows per year. These students must be enrolled in either the Master of Public Administration (MPA) or Master of Urban Planning (MUP) program and express an explicit interest in working for municipal governments to solve our most urgent social issues. The Fellowships will allow two of the fellows a terrific opportunity to intern at the highest level of NYC government. The third fellow will get to take on exciting work with the U.S. Conference of Mayors. Please visit wagner.nyu.edu/bohnettfellows for more information.
