

SAMPLE COURSE PLAN

International Development Planning Full-Time

Fall	Credits	Spring	Credits
Year 1
1011 Statistics	3	1020 Managing Public Service Organizations	3
1018 Microeconomics	3	1021 Financial Management	3
2660 History and Theory of Planning	3	1603 Urban Planning Methods and Practice	3
2201 Institutions, Governance & International Development	3	2608 Urban Economics	3
Year 2
2618 GIS	3	2203 International Economic Development: Governments, Markets, and Communities	3
2652 International Development Project Planning	3	2245 Financing Local Government in Developing Countries	3
2665 Decentralized Development Planning	3	4605 Comparative Land Use Planning	1.5
		4670 Urban Innovations in Latin America	1.5
3601/3148 Capstone	1.5	3602/3149 Capstone	1.5

NOTE: This is a sample course plan for illustrative purposes only. Students are advised to choose their electives based upon their goals and interests. It is up to the student to appropriately plan out course sequencing based on Capstone prerequisites, semester offerings, and elective availability using the tools posted on the COURSES website (wagner.nyu.edu/courses).

KEY:

School-wide Core	Planning Core	Capstone	Elective
------------------	---------------	----------	----------