NEWS HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE WOMEN OF COLOR POLICY NETWORK

June 30, 2009

Dear Network Friends and Colleagues:

Tomorrow morning July 1, 2009, tune in to CNN's American Morning from 6:00 a.m.-9:00 a.m. to catch my interview with Christine Romans on the impact of the recession on communities of color. In the segment, I discuss the economy, unemployment, and what the Administration, states, and localities can do ensure that the most vulnerable in our society are able to successfully recover.

If you have not had the opportunity to read our latest report on Race, Gender, and the Recession, please visit our website at wagner.nyu.edu/wocpn.

Sincerely,

C. Nicole Mason, PhD

Executive Director

Women of Color Policy Network, NYU Wagner
