

MPA-PNP

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION PUBLIC & NONPROFIT MANAGEMENT & POLICY

To be an effective public service leader, you will need a broad education and a firm grasp of how skills and ideas translate in different real-world contexts. This interdisciplinary program will prepare you for a transformative career in the nonprofit, public, and private sectors. Using the thriving urban setting of New York City as your laboratory, you'll understand how to effectively address the most pressing issues of our time.

My time at Wagner helped me cultivate the skills and experiences I needed to enter into a career at the State Department. The coursework at NYU Wagner really set me up to understand how to manage large programs and projects, essential to the work I do within the government."

Maureen Ahmed, MPA-PNP 2016
Foreign Affairs Officer, U.S. State Department

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Engaged and influential faculty who encourage you to test the skills and ideas you develop in the classroom against your real-world professional experiences-and vice versa.
- Critical analytic skills and frameworks that you'll need to successfully make an impact across sectors, fields, and policy arenas.
- A powerful community whose members can connect you to key organizations, contacts, and career opportunities worldwide.

ACADEMIC OVERVIEW

The MPA-PNP program can be completed in two years full-time or three to four years part-time, with the flexibility to switch between the two. All students take core courses to gain essential skills in management, policy, and finance. Students then focus on a specialization, each of which has a set of required courses, and take a wide range of electives.

REQUIRED CORE COURSES:

- Management & Leadership
- Financial Management
- Statistical Methods
- Microeconomics
- Introduction to Public Policy
