NYU Wagner prepares students to make a real impact on today’s most significant challenges. With skills, tools, and a deep understanding of context, our students are prepared to analyze issues, tackle problems, and improve the world around them—in management, policy, finance, health, transportation, and many other sectors.

By partnering with our Office of Career Services, we will connect you to a richly engaged, passionate, and talented community who seek purpose-driven careers. We look forward to working with you.

PARTNER WITH US

There are several ways we can help you recruit staff, interns, fellows, and volunteers:

- POST A POSITION: Our online Career Directory reaches thousands of candidates daily. Use the Career Directory year-round to list full-time and part-time positions, as well as internships—at no cost to you.

- RECRUIT ON CAMPUS: Let us streamline and manage the hiring process for you, including collecting application documents, scheduling interviews with candidates, and securing space on campus for interviews. You can recruit anytime during the year.

- ATTEND THE PUBLIC SERVICE CAREER EXPO: Your presence at this annual spring event, one of largest public service graduate school career fairs in the country, gives you the opportunity to meet student and alumni candidates while increasing your visibility with others in your field.

- HOST AN INFORMATION SESSION: Increase awareness of your organization’s goals, current projects, and staffing needs by hosting an information session on campus or at your office.

- SPEAK AT CAREER PANELS, EVENTS, AND WORKSHOPS: Participating in career panels, workshops, mock interviews, and events is an excellent way to informally interact with students and alumni, and meet more potential candidates.

- BE A CAPSTONE CLIENT: NYU Wagner graduate student teams are assigned to clients over the course of the academic year. Based on your organizational needs, your Capstone team will research important issues, address complex challenges, and identify opportunities key to your organizational growth.
NYU Wagner’s rigorous degree programs are rooted in a foundation of management, policy, and finance. This interdisciplinary approach prepares students to face the complexities and realities of public service challenges, and they are prepared to hit the ground running once they graduate.
