

NYU Wagner in Washington

Government & Non-profit Career Expo, NYU
Wagner Panel & Networking Event

A Conversation about Public Service Careers in Washington, D.C.

Travel to Washington D.C. to network with 80+ employers from across government and non-profit industries; speak directly to recruiters about opportunities within their organizations. Following the Career Expo, join the NYU Wagner for a career panel featuring successful alumni in public service. Panelists will share their experiences and insights about what it is like to work in D.C.

February 13th, 2015

Georgetown Career Expo

Time: 10:00am to 3:00pm

Location: Georgetown University Hotel and Conference Center

NYU Wagner Alumni Career Panel

Time: 4:30pm to 5:30pm

Location: NYU DC Campus

NYU Wagner Alumni Networking Reception

Time: 5:30pm to 7:00pm

Location: NYU DC Campus

Students can register for the Career Expo via NYU Wasserman's CareerNet.

RSVP for the Panel and Reception via the Wagner Events page.

Panel Moderator: Professor John Gershman

NYU Wagner Alumni Panelists:

Avra Siegel
MPA 2007

Deputy Director

White House Council on Women & Girls

Evian Patterson
MPA PNP 2010

City wide Division Manager

DC Department of Transportation

Galin Brooks
MUP 2010

Planning Manager

NoMa Business Improvement District

Javier Bronfman
MPA PNP 2007

Extended Term Consultant
The World Bank Group

Tasha Moses
MPA HPAM 2005

Director, Strategic Initiatives and Communications
C-Change

Transportation to the Georgetown Career Expo is being coordinated through NYU Wasserman and is first come first serve. Please note that the bus will return immediately following the Georgetown Career Expo. Students who would like to attend the alumni panel and reception will need to find alternative transportation back to NYC.