

EVENTS

New Urban Planning Students Mix With 2nd Years

Students, new and returning, mingled and enjoyed NEW YORK, the Ric Burns Documentary. The screening was the first of the planned Movie Nights for the year. The next one will be held on Friday October 4th in the Commons Room.

Urban Planning Brown Bag with Professor Ingrid Ellen

Professor Ingrid Ellen presented the findings of her study, "Measuring the Impact on Subsidized Housing on Neighborhood Property Values" to more than 40 students packed into the Commons Room on Tuesday Sept. 14th. The Brown Bag Session, sponsored by the NYU Urban Planning Student Association, kicked off the fall series of seminars.

FACULTY and 9/11

George Jacquemart's "Getting Lower Manhattan Moving Again" Outlines Hurdles Facing Lower Manhattan

The Sept issue of PLANNING, the American Planning Association's newsmagazine, features Jacquemart's thoughts on Lower Manhattan Redevelopment. Jacquemart, a principal of Buckhurst Fish & Jacquemart, is an adjunct professor of Transportation Planning at the Wagner school.

Appleaseed Chosen to Assess Lower Manhattan Alternatives

Hugh O'Neill, adjunct Professor of Planning at New York University, and founder of Appleaseed, an economic development consulting firm based in New York City, has been retained by the Lower Manhattan Development Corporation to assist the Corporation's staff and its board of directors in evaluating alternative proposals for investment of public resources in the revitalization of downtown New York.

"Next Steps, Hard Choices" for Lower Manhattan Redevelopment

In July of 2002, NYU Professor of Planning, Craig Whitaker, and a team of 11 Wagner Planning Students presented their assessment and plans for the rebuilding of Lower Manhattan in a report entitled "Next Steps, Hard Choices." Their proposal calls for a larger acceptance of community needs as well as those of all associated stakeholders in the decision-making process. To download a copy: <http://urban.nyu.edu/research/nextsteps/index.html>.

STUDENTS

New UPSA leadership for the 2002-2003 year

The leaders of the Urban Planning Student Association met in August to map out the schedule of events for the upcoming year. From left to right: Alissa Black, Derek Piper, David Quart, John Bender, Henry Choi, Sophie Mayes and Christina Mang outlined an exciting series of events including: Career panels, Movie Nights, Happy Hours, and Brown Bag Lectures.

2nd Years

Meredith Hennessy is working for Seedco, she is currently heading an initiative into equity-building housing developments.

Stephen O'Halloran is splitting his time between school and working on a congressional campaign. His candidate, running for the 5th district in NJ, has a good chance of winning in the Nov elections; what will he do in January?

David Quart is currently working at the Times Square Business Improvement District and is involved with Strategic Planning and Development.

Meryl Block is at the office of Private Ferry Operations at the NYC Dept . of Traffic

10.02.02

Urban Planning Brown Bag 3:00-5:00 pm

Technology and Community Planning
Tom Pederson PhD, ESRI, Steve Romalewski, President, CMAP, and Anthony Townsend, Taub Urban Research Center, discuss GIS and Wireless technologies in the Planning Process. Location: 4 Washington Sq. North, Commons Room. RSVP: scm247@nyu.edu

10.18.02

Student, Faculty & Alumni Wine & Cheese 6:00-8:00 pm

Location: Torch Club, 18 Waverly Pl. (between Mercer & Greene Streets) RSVP required: hc321@nyu.edu or 212.998.7563

